Re. the Notice of Breach of Privilege

SHRIMATI JAYANTHI NATARAJAN (Tamil Nadu): Madam, I have given a notice of breach of privilege against the Minister of Home Affairs, Mr. Mufti Mohammad Sayeed.....(Interruptions).... Please listen.

SHRI YASHWANT SINHA (Bihar): You should know the rules.

SOME HON. MEMBERS: We know the rules.

SHRIMATI JAYANTHI NATARAJAN: It is a very serious matter of breach of privilege. Many of us have given notice, I want to know what has happened to it.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: You have given the notice in the morning. Let the Chairman look into it and decide. Then, we will inform you.

SHRIMATI JAYANTHI NATARAJAN: I want to say something about it. The motion for breach of priviliege is a very important thing. I have given it in the morning. Yesterday, the Home Minister has misled the House on various issues.

THE DEPUTY CHARIRMAN: You gave a notice....

SHRIMATI JAYANTHI NATARAJAN: Let me complete my sentence. What I am saying Madam, is that it is too important and has to be taken up in this session itself. I am raising it to remind the House that it has to be discussed in this session itself so that it is not put off in view of the prevailing situation in J&K.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: The Chairman is in his Chamber. Every other matter is going to be discussed in his Chamber regarding the extension of the session giving extra time for some notices which have been given etc, if you have already given the notice, you discuss it with the Chairman.

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN : The Minister is on his legs. Please sit down. (Interruptions). It is all right. One Member may speak. But if everybody is speaking on the same point, it is not going to make it more stronger. Please listen to the Minister. He is on his legs. What else do you want?

श्री पवन कुमार बांसल (पंजाब) : पहले जब वाक आऊट हुआ था उसको भी मेंशन नहीं किया ... (व्यवधान) ...

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI P. UPENDRA) : Madam, Ministerial instructions are no longer given to the Doordarshan now. Madam, there are assigned correspondents, who cover the Parliamentary proceedings. They report and whatever they report, they have been telecast or broadcast. But I can convey their feelings. (Interruptions).

THE DEPUTY CHAIRMAN: We have a message from Lok Sabha. I have got twenty special Mentions. If everybody speaks like this, I am going to cut down the special Mentions from that party's time.

THE LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION (SHRI P. SHIV SHANKER): Madam, does the Minister for Information and Broadcasting want us to believe that he has no hold over his Ministry?

SHRI P. UPENDRA: It is not a question of hold. We are not misusing it as you have been doing it earlier. (Interruptions). We have a hold but we do not have a stranglehold.
